

MANY MURDERS SUSPECTED.

WORSE THAN FORGERY NOW CHARGED AGAINST CHARLES ZANOLI.

DEATH FOLLOWED THE INSURANCE SWINDLER WHEREVER HE WENT—THE BODY OF HIS LAST WIFE TO BE EXHUMED TO-DAY AND EXAMINED BY MEDICAL EXPERTS.

Charles Zanoli, alias Braun, alias Sumner, who was arrested on Thursday on the charge of defrauding the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and confessed himself guilty, has more now to answer than the charges of fraud and forgery, of which he so readily owned that he was rightly the subject. It is now more than suspected by the police and the District Attorney that the prisoner was the active agent in causing at least some of the deaths of his four wives, his mother-in-law, his daughter and his workman, by living with a carefully arranged system of insurance, he made several thousands of dollars.

District Attorney Olcott and Captain McCuskey yesterday decided that the body of Mrs. Sumner, Zanoli's last wife, who died in August last, shall be exhumed and examined by expert chemists for traces of poison. Until that has been done the police have practically no direct evidence of murder against their prisoner and they frankly admit that at present the case puzzles them. That a man could live for years under the eyes of the police, move about as he chose, and change his name as he pleased, keeping all the time a barber shop open to the public and dependent on its patronage, and while plotting forgery, fraud and murder right along, focusing it, as it ripened, at the pay desk of a great business corporation, getting caught at last only by accident, they are reluctant to believe is possible. Yet Zanoli admits all this but the murder.

NEW CHARGES MADE.

The barber was again arraigned before Magistrate Meade, in the Centre Street Police Court, yesterday, by Central Office Detectives Carey and Alonzo. They arraigned him as a suspicious person, and after explaining to the Magistrate that it was now believed that he had caused the death of his many wives, his mother-in-law and his employee, William Schmidt, for the purpose of collecting insurance money, asked for more time in which to secure evidence against him.

Zanoli was again remanded to Police Headquarters. Joseph Moss, representing the Metropolitan Insurance Company, was in court, but said that he would await developments concerning the suspicion of murder against Zanoli before pressing and prosecuting the charge of defrauding the insurance company.

The barber was extremely pale, but aside from that was calm and self-possessed, and did not seem to be at all perturbed by the seriousness of the charge against him.

After the hearing he was photographed at Police Headquarters for the Rogues' Gallery yesterday and measured according to the Bertillon system. He strongly objected to these formalities.

DETECTIVES HARD AT WORK.

All yesterday the Central Office detectives and the officials of the District Attorney's office were hard at work on the case.

Captain McCuskey is proceeding on the theory that Mary Dorn, Zanoli's first wife, and Mrs. Dorn, her mother, died from natural causes, and that Zanoli had a hand in the death of Lena Werner, his second wife; Schmidt, his employee; Louisa Herzog, his third wife; Jennie Schlegel, his fourth wife; and Lena Werner, his stepdaughter, who is missing, as well as in the death of Mrs. Sumner. He asked Zanoli point blank in the course of the afternoon if he had killed his wives and the missing wife, and the prisoner wept bitterly in his cell and seemed to be sorry for something that he had done.

McCuskey afterward said that he thought the prisoner was acting smart. The chief detective is particularly impressed with the fact that the diseases which afflicted the various wives and the two other persons all seem to be variations of one complaint.

When Zanoli was searched at Headquarters he had a loaded revolver, $1,000 in bills and a bankbook with an account of $500 in it. He seemed loth to part with the money, and said that he carried the revolver to protect himself against robbers.

WHAT THE DEATH RECORD SHOWS.

The Death Registry Bureau yielded up its contribution to the case yesterday in the official record of the deaths now under investigation. This is the record in the order in which the deaths occurred:

Leopoldine Bern, sick from October 17, 1894, morning, attended by a physician, cause of death, No. 171 Elizabeth-st., investigated by Coroner's Physician A. D. Weston, cause of death, fatty degeneration of the heart; undertaker, P. J. Hoeller, of No. 18 Ludlow-st.

Maria Zanoli, attended by a physician from June 11 to 14, 1895, cause of death, apoplexy, cerebral paralysis and cardiac; attended by Dr. John G. Weber, of No. 74 Rivington-st., cause of death, fatty degeneration of the heart; undertaker, P. J. Hoeller, of No. 18 Ludlow-st.

STOLEN FROM THE MAILS.

INVESTIGATING THEFTS SAID BY A SECRET SERVICE MAN TO AMOUNT TO A LARGE SUM.

Major Charles F. Lewis, of the Philadelphia branch of the Government Secret Service, is in the city. He is making his headquarters here while he is investigating what is said by some to be one of the largest robberies in the history of the Postoffice Department. One of the Secret Service men said yesterday that about $100,000 is involved, and that a systematic robbery of registered letters has been carried on along a part of the line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey for a long period.

The taking of money from the registered mails was discovered on November 9, when, it is said, $30,000, the total amount carried in two bags, disappeared. This led to the investigation, and it is alleged that on the same day the money was taken one of the clerks disappeared and that he has not since been found.

The investigation has been carried on secretly ever since then, and the Secret Service agents and the Postoffice inspectors who are engaged on it are reticent as to the affair.

The Central road runs through Newark, Elizabeth, Plainfield and Bound Brook, among other places. The statement is made that certain bankers along that line were in the habit of sending as much as $15,000 on one trip to this city under registered covers, in order to save the extra expense of express charges. In this way comparatively large sums were frequently carried, and always with the knowledge of the railway clerks, it is said. Since November 7 many complaints have reached the Postoffice making inquiries after registered letters that never reached their destination. The chief inspector and his staff at the Postoffice here have several files filled with these complaints, it is said.

Postmaster Van Cott, of the New York Postoffice, when seen last night, said that he had no knowledge of the robbery further than that Major Lewis was investigating some matter in New Jersey, and that it in no way affected the local office.

Major Lewis, when the story was told to him, said that it was "too early" for a letter, and several letters had disappeared simultaneously, but the amount contained in all the letters missing would not exceed $300.

Washington, Dec. 10. The postal officials here tonight admitted that there had been a number of losses of registered mail matter reported on the railroad referred to, but said that up to date no definite advice had been received as to the amount. It would probably, however, not reach as much as $100,000.

SUED BY HIS DIVORCED WIFE.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES OF THE OWNER OF THE YACHT ALFA.

London, Dec. 10.—In the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice to-day, Mrs. Edith Walker sued her husband, A. Barclay Walker, the owner of the well-known racing yacht Alfa, to recover jewelry valued at £7,000. Counsel for the plaintiff said the jewelry was given to the plaintiff, who was a widow, after the engagement. Afterward, counsel continued, the defendant took to drinking and had delirium tremens. While the case was on, the defendant, who is being defended, counsel also said, approached his wife in an excited state and told her to go on the streets, adding that she belonged there. The wife then began proceedings for a separation, which she obtained, with alimony to the amount of £1,000 yearly. In the mean while, according to counsel, the defendant obtained possession of the plaintiff's jewelry, which she refused to return.

The plaintiff confirmed the statements made by her counsel, and the jury returned a verdict in her favor.

THE KAISER BUYS THE TAMPA.

MR. PALMER'S STEEL SCHOONER YACHT TO GO TO GERMANY, AFTER AILE.

London, Dec. 11.—"The Field" to-day confirms the report that Emperor William has purchased Richard Snydam Palmer's steel schooner yacht, the Tampa.

The Tampa was built at Wilmington, Del., in 1887. She has a tonnage of 161.50, is 135 feet long, 27 feet in breadth and has a draft of 14 feet.

A PARIS MYSTERY CLEARED UP.

ARREST AND CONFESSION OF THE MURDERERS OF A BANK COLLECTOR.

Paris, Dec. 10.—The mysterious disappearance of a bank collector named Lamare a week ago has been explained by the arrest and confession of a couple named Carrara, who were engaged in the business of growing mushrooms. Lamare, on November 30, called on the Carraras to collect some money, when the latter hit him on the head with a piece of iron, killed him and hid his body in the evening, when the Carraras were growing mushrooms. Lamare had 26,000 francs with him at the time he was killed.

BETTER OUTLOOK FOR AUSTRIA.

YOUNG KOSUTH'S OBSTRUCTIVE BILL DEFEATED.

London, Dec. 11.—Special dispatches from Vienna and from Budapest indicate that there is a better prospect for the bill which Baron Banffy, the Hungarian Premier, recently introduced in the Lower House of the Hungarian Parliament to prolong the Ausgleich for a year without reference to any action on the same subject on the part of Austria. The obstructive motion of Herr Francis Kosuth, the leader of the party advocating an independent Hungary, that the bill should be referred, not to the Finance Committee, as is usual, but to the Committee of the Whole House, has been defeated by a vote of 185 against 87.

It is now reported that Baron Banffy is negotiating with Herr Kosuth for a compromise, which will secure the passage of the bill before January 1 next.

REDITION'S PLACARDS IN VIENNA.

Vienna, Dec. 10.—A great sensation has been caused here by the posting broadcast yesterday evening of red placards, even in the Inner Town and Hofburg, inscribed "No Ausgleich." "Abolish the Language Ordinances" and "German is the National Language." The police tore the placards down.

The Ausgleich is the compact existing between Austria and Hungary, providing for a common head, the Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, and for a common administration of foreign affairs, defence, financial affairs and commercial affairs, etc., although each country has its own Parliament and Ministry.

STANDARD OIL IN GERMANY.

DEBATE IN THE REICHTAG—THE GERMAN BUDGET.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—The Reichstag to-day discussed the interpretation of the Government of yesterday regarding its intentions, with the view of throwing the Standard Oil Company from monopolizing the German market. Herr Barth, the Freisinnige leader, pointed out that any measures to strengthen competition against the Standard Oil Company would make petroleum dearer.

Baron von Heylshausen urged vigorous action against "American presumptions in the economic field."

The Minister of the Interior, Count Posadowsky, promised a special freight tariff shortly for Russian petroleum, and an arrangement by which the import duty would be determined by weight. A system of differential duties, he explained, was not desired by the trade.

The Secretary of the Treasury, Baron von Thielmann, in presenting the budget to-day said the surplus for 1897 would be 20,000,000 marks, while the customs and tobacco tax would probably be 20,000,000 marks over the estimates, of which 20,000,000 marks were assigned for debt redemption.

STATE BANK NOTES IN GEORGIA.

THE SENATE PASSES A BILL FOR THEIR ISSUE AND THE DEFENCE OF THEIR BROTHERS UNDER FEDERAL LAW.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 10.—The Georgia Legislature is determined to test the constitutionality of the State bank notes and to make the State pay the expense of all litigation that may arise from efforts to evade or defeat the Federal law on this subject. The Senate this afternoon by a vote of 31 to 9 passed a bill to authorize State banks to issue their obligations in prescribed form up to 50 per cent of their paid up capital, said obligations to be redeemable in silver bullion at its market value. It is provided that the Attorney-General of Georgia shall defend any and all cases that may be brought against any bank which is attacked for exercising the privilege conferred by this act, and that all costs of such suits shall be paid by the State. If the bank issues provided for are declared illegal, this bill will certainly pass the House and be approved by the Governor.

Another bill on this subject is pending in the House. It provides merely that should any State bank issue notes and be called upon to pay tax thereon, the State shall defend the case. The former bill will pass because it has a silver clause in it which catches the Populists and most of the Democrats in the Legislature. Both bills are severely condemned by business men all over the State, but the Legislature is bent on taking the worse of the two.

A SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN ATTACKED.

ARMED ROBBERS STOP THE SUNSET LIMITED. BUT FLEE AT THE DEATH OF THEIR LEADER.

Denver, Col., Dec. 10.—A dispatch from El Paso, Tex., says: "Meagre particulars were received in this city late last night from San Simon, a small station just west of El Paso, Ariz., on the Southern Pacific, of a train hold-up. Train No. 20, the Sunset Limited, had just left San Simon, N. M., near the Arizona line, when the engineer noticed a danger signal in front, and immediately applied the air brakes. No sooner was the train brought to a stop than five men stepped out from their hiding-places near the track, all heavily armed. One covered the engineer and fireman with his Winchester, while the other three kept their attention on the train proper, more especially to the express car, firing their guns in the air and otherwise frightening the passengers.

At this juncture the guards in the express cars took a hand in the fusillade. Thirty or forty shots are said to have been fired on both sides. One Wells Fargo guard, Jennings by name, succeeded in killing a robber. The other two robbers were nearest to the car, and who was evidently the leader of the gang, for as soon as the other robbers noticed the body lying on the ground they lost courage and made a break for their horses. Another bullet from Jennings' rifle evidently struck one of the robbers, as he was seen to be wounded. He was assisted out of range by his comrades. No express money was stolen and none of the passengers were hurt.

THREE-TENTH PARES IN INDIANAPOLIS.

THE COURT OF APPEALS SAYS THEY CAN BE REQUIRED ONLY BY A GENERAL LAW.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—The United States Court of Appeals, in an opinion handed down to-day in the Indianapolis three-cent coffee case, dismissed the appeal of the city of Indianapolis from the order of Judge Shawalter, enjoining the enforcement of the three-cent fare ordinance. The case was one in which the Central Trust Company, a New York corporation, had obtained a judgment at Indianapolis, asking for an injunction restraining the enforcement of the ordinance. The court said that the ordinance of the city of Indianapolis, passed March 1, 1897, was a general law, and that the Indianapolis Trust Company was created or formed under general law, and that a fare can be effected only by a general law, applicable alike to all similar corporations throughout the State.

THEIR "GREAT SILVER FRIEND."

WILLIAM J. BRYAN RECEIVED WITH DISTINGUISHED CONSIDERATION IN MEXICO.

Monterey, Mexico, Dec. 10.—William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, is in Monterey to-day. His visit has aroused great enthusiasm, and he is being made the recipient of municipal, State and Federal honors.

Laredo, Tex., Dec. 10.—W. J. Bryan and his party arrived in this city, the gateway to the Republic of Mexico, last evening. He was immediately transferred to a special car on the Mexican National Railway. Accompanied by several prominent Mexican officials dispatched by President Diaz to meet them, they crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico. As soon as the Mexican side of the river was reached, the party was met by a band and a telegram from President Diaz, welcoming Mr. Bryan to the country, was read. The train then pulled up to the station, where a large crowd of the representative people of Laredo was awaiting their arrival. Several speeches of welcome were made, to which Mr. Bryan briefly responded. Preparations have been made all along the line for his reception. Mr. Bryan was repeatedly referred to in the speeches, as "Our Great Silver Friend."

A DIAMOND THIEF CAPTURED.

HE HAD STOLEN NEARLY $100,000 WORTH OF JEWELS IN THE HOUSE OF THE COMMANDER OF MARYLAND'S NAVAL RESERVE.

Baltimore, Dec. 10.—The house of Isaac E. Emerson, president of the Emerson Drug Company and commander of the Maryland Naval Reserve, at No. 2,600 Easton Place, was entered last night and diamonds valued at nearly $100,000 were stolen. After a desperate struggle the thief was captured as he was leaving the house. The prisoner was searched and the diamonds were found in his pockets. He at first said his name was Smith, and afterward told Captain John Baker that it was John Davis, twenty-nine years old, and that he was a corporal in the United States Army. He was identified as John Davis, a former member of the Baltimore Police, and a well-known thief. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado. The police are now searching for the diamonds which were stolen from the Emerson house. The thief admitted that he had stolen the diamonds from the Emerson house, and that he had intended to sell them to a jeweler in New York City. He was taken to the police station, where he was held incommunicado